PLANNING YOUR DAY

At Birdsall House we aim to offer you a truly bespoke experience when planning for and enjoying your wedding day. No two weddings at Birdsall are the same and we work with you, your hopes, ideals and budgets, to create the wedding of your dreams. We want you to enjoy holding your wedding in our magical and majestic surroundings, whilst not feeling too daunted or intimidated along the way.

We are delighted to offer a planning service that is included in the charge for Birdsall House. Our address book contains a huge range of contacts from stationers to florists and jugglers, photographers, tailors, jewellers and bakers. With experience of working with caterers and suppliers, as well as couples and their families, we work with each client to make sure that your individual style and personality is reflected in your special day.

GETTING MARRIED

Whether you are looking to hold a religious wedding in St. Mary's Church within our grounds, an intimate civil service in our 12th Century Ruins or a Jewish, Hindu or Sikh ceremony in our Ballroom, we are able to offer every type of celebration. We are licensed to hold civil ceremonies throughout our magnificent reception rooms as well as in the Old Ruins and the Little Temple in our stunning gardens.

St Mary's, Birdsall is Church of England and situated within the parkland of Birdsall House. The Church is a two minute drive away or a beautiful 10 minute stroll up our avenue of 300 year old lime trees on a sunny day. The Church holds up to 200 people and our vicar is very happy to talk to couples who may wish to marry at St Mary's.

RECEPTION & WEDDING BREAKFAST

Receptions at Birdsall can either be held in the magnificent landscape gardens or within the stunning and historic reception rooms of the house. The gardens behind the house are stunning and include a large terrace overlooking a series of lakes, whilst in front of the house is situated a 12th Century Church Ruin which is all that remains of the original monastic grounds. In May and June we host a very impressive and colourful display of Rhododendrons. The grounds are the perfect place to have a quintessentially english garden reception with champagne and lawn games.

For indoor receptions and your wedding breakfast, we have four impressive state rooms in the house that can be used separately or combined to create the perfect setting for you and your guests. Our Dining Room and Long Hall are wonderful for receptions while the Oval Room and Ballroom are perfect for hosting your wedding breakfast, whatever the weather. For weddings with larger numbers of guests a marquee, either along the terrace overlooking the stunning gardens or by the Old Ruins, gives your family and friends a day to remember.
